Telepark Starts “Prepaid Service” at Seven-Eleven Japan Stores Nationwide

- Total of 77 Items will be on Sale from 10 a.m. on April 9! -

We are pleased to announce that Telepark Corporation, hereinafter called Telepark (Head office: Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo, Representative President: Shigenori Miyazaki) and Seven-Eleven Japan Co., Ltd., hereinafter called SEJ (Head office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Representative President & COO: Toshiro Yamaguchi) will launch “Prepaid Service” using multi-copy machines to sell PIN (Personal Identification Number) Codes at approximately 12,00 SEJ stores nationwide from 10 a.m. on April 9, 2008.

“Prepaid Service” is convenient service, which allows customers to purchase PIN Codes in advance at anytime. Such PIN Codes are used as a certain amount of money or points set by each business corporation providing online games and/or music download services, and have becoming popular as means of settlement in a wide range of areas such as online games, music distribution, and international calls.

Telepark and SEJ sell 77 items for “Prepaid Service” at the first stage, and will add further attractive new items to existing product lineup in order to enhance the convenience for customers / users and further expand the market scale.
